

Admission Policy

Osaka International University is seeking students who understand and sympathize with its the founding philosophy and educational aims and have the following ideas and objectives.

1. Those who are willing to learn, to develop socially interactive skills that enable them to work in collaboration with others and to try to acquire the fundamental capabilities necessary for actively participating in any field.
2. Those who are driven by a curiosity in society and humanity and coupling this with the motivation for self-development and a strong desire to actively participate in their field, will seek future opportunities.