～How did you learn you foreign language?～

Associate Professor Colin Rogers (New Zealand)

コリン ロジャース 准教授

I studied Latin for two years at high school. I have forgotten it now, but it was useful for learning scientific English. I also studied French for three years and I could speak and read it, but now I have forgotten it. I learned Japanese when I came to Japan when I was 30 years old. I learned by listening to people and chatting with people. I speak Kansai dialect and a little Okayama dialect.

高校でラテン語を 2 年間習ったけど、もう忘れちゃったな。でも英語の科学用語を勉強するのに役立ったよ。フランス語も 3 年間習って話したり読んだり出来たけど、もう忘れちゃった。30 歳の時に日本に来て、人が話すのを聞いたりおしゃべりしたりして日本語を覚えたよ。今では関西弁とちょっとだけ岡山弁がしゃべれるよ。
